PROJECTS

Quiz Website

I created this quiz website with html,css,java script as well as implementing local storage for saving data.The quiz has time and some other wonderful features.

The user interface is also top notch

Todo Website

I created this website with react js,I also implemented local storage to save data.

It contains important features such as edit,delete,preview and add your too.

The user interface is ok.

Pet Shop Website

I created this website with react js.It is a prototype of an ecommerce website.

I added some wonderful css features which makes the website a beauty to behold.
